Set by Two Clubs

(Foreign County News Service)

At the last meeting of the Rockaway Beach Progressive club and volunteer fire department, plans were discussed for having two separate meetings for the above group so that those interested in serving the fire department but not interested in taking part in the activities of the Progressive club may do so. Due to the small population, the two groups have always met as one in the past.

The next meeting of the progressive club will be held tonight and will again be discussed. The greater part of the evening will be social.
