We have another new ship on the field. It is a 3-place Fleet, powered by a 125 h.p. Kinner. It has a cruising speed of 103 miles per hour, and a top speed of about 120 m.p.h. This Fleet is the latest model built, and has a great many improvements over the earlier types. A compressed air self-starter, removable tail wheel, padded leather cockpits, and more and better instruments are a few of the modern conveniences.

Colonel H. L. Watson, the owner, intends this ship to be used commercially, in the same manner as the other Fleet, but for carrying two passengers instead of one.

HERALD LETTER BOX

Carmel, May 20, 1932.
Editor The Herald:

Altruistic ideals and efforts each summer for the past three years to build up for Carmel a community Summer Festival of Music has had its reward in the public recognition and success. The Summer Festival began with Wednesday morning recitals, while last year it presented a group of four outstanding chamber music concerts by the famous Brose String Quartet of London sponsored by Mrs. J. B. Cusserly.

The field of community summer concerts has been until now free from encroachment or rivalry. The Carmel Music society declared itself unwilling to take up further active work than its winter series of concerts.

This coming summer there will be a change in the policy of the music society, evidenced by a recent announcement throughout the peninsula press dated the week following the published announcement of the Summer Festival. The Carmel Music society has stated that its board of directors "unanimously sponsored" an outside group of four concerts (the Neah-Kah-Nie String Quartet, locally managed by Dene Denny, general business manager of the organization) to be given in the Sunset school auditorium.

As director of the Summer Festival of Music I appeared before the board of the music society and asked for their sponsorship also, assuring the music society that they would be incurring no obligation, financial or otherwise, except the courtesy of the same "sponsorship" that had been accorded by them to the Neah-Kah-Nie concerts.

After full discussion the board of directors of the Carmel Music society adopted the following resolution:

"The board of directors of the Carmel Music society recognizes the value and merit of the Summer Festival of Music but considers it unnecessary to sponsor an organization with a record of three years of successful achievement and a strong representative board of its own."

So the Summer Festival of Music of Carmel will carry on its annual efforts toward success without the sponsorship requested.

The program this summer will be limited to three Tuesday evenings, July 12, 19 and 26. The San Francisco Chamber Opera together with the fourth proposed concert will give place to one all-Carmel artists' program in response to widespread community interest in the presentation of our own chamber music ensembles. It is confidently believed that Carmel music lovers will be amazed and delighted over what their own artists have been accomplishing.

The other two engagements will be the following: The Pro Arte String Quartet of Belgium, considered by the London String Quar-

B. Ingham of Pacific Grove high school, where Bennett was graduated with the class of 1926.

Bennett has been taking a pre-medical course at the university and intends to complete next year the state requirements for teacher certification with a view to teaching of science. The scholarship was awarded to him purely on the basis of scholarship achievement. His record of 9 A's and 5 B's during the past semester was the determining factor. It is understood the money is an outright gift with no "strings" attached.

Bennett left Pacific Grove high school in the class of 1925. He was for a time employed at the Grove post office.

Let as one of the two greatest existing string ensembles in the world, and a concert by the Trio Ensemble, with Lawrence Strauss, tenor, Charles Cooper, pianist, and Mishu Gogua, 'celist.

Advance reservations for season tickets will begin immediately. It may be well to announce that next year by arrangement with Mills college we will have the distinction of presenting the London String Quartet.

Mrs. G. T. Tanner is planning a picnic tonight for her Sunday school class. The picnic will be held at the beach. About 20 young people are expected to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Gray visited Mrs. Gray's brother last week in Berkeley.

Two meetings of the Bible class are held each week instead of one. The Tuesday meeting is held at the home of Mrs. Jess Hanberry, and the Thursday meeting is held at the home of Mrs. G. T. Tanner.

A Sunday evening young people's service is held each week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Hanberry. The service begins at seven o'clock, after which there is a sermon for those who wish to stay.

A separate school house for the migratory children has been finished and classes began Thursday, May 18. The house will be used for a community hall and all public gatherings instead of the main school house.

The progress of the World Court resolution seems to be somewhat delayed by the middle. When is a reservation not a reservation?

Check the cost of materials this year against the prices asked four years ago. Check the cost of labor right now against the cost of labor back in 1928. There's a tremendous difference . . . and, of course, it's all in your favor . . . so much so that there never was a better time to build than right now.
