DR. SUSKIND

11.

Transcript, February 19, 1986:

"Q. You discovered that in 1953. You wrote the article in 1980, Doctor. In 1980 when you wrote the article which the world read and believed, you knew at that time that 27 out of 29 workers continued to complain of these problems, did you not, sir?

"A. We did know it." (p. 175)

Transcript, March 7, 1986:

"Q. And, Doctor, you told the world that these problems had gone away except in a few cases, isn't that right, sir?

"A. Yes, sir.

"Q. And you wanted the world to rely upon the statements that you made, correct, sir?

"A. I made those statements, sir." (p. 120)

"Q. My question goes to the entire world, Doctor. You do expect the entire world to rely upon what you say, don't you, sir?

"A. I hope so." (p. 122)
