All, Fred Barnes is working on a piece for the Weekly Standard on Administrator Pruitt. He's mentioned traveling with the Administrator to see him in the field in action. I suggested that one of the robust travel weeks with a number of options would be the week after Thanksgiving.

It may be best for us all to connect to see what makes sense and what would be the best use of Fred's time to see what we do.

Thanks.

Dr Happer, I've been working with Dr Koonin on his red team blue team idea. I'm glad he's continuing to highlight the idea with the interim science report being issued this Friday.

In terms of a red team, he mentioned that part of the idea is really spearheaded from your work. I wanted to contact you at a convenient time to talk with you about that group.

I appreciate your time. Please let me know where and when I could reach you.

Ryan.

Yes, I would really appreciate that, thank you. I have to admit, I'm not the best at keeping up on social media even business related social media. When would be convenient for you?

Ryan,

Belated congratulations on your appointment as Chief of Staff. I reached out via LinkedIn earlier this year but wasn't sure how often you check that site. I thought I'd try a more direct approach to follow in the footsteps of my predecessors and introduce myself. Hopefully by now you've had an opportunity to settle into the cadence of the role and I wanted to see if your schedule would allow time for us to meet in person. I've recently started the next chapter of my career at a law firm in DC so my schedule is currently pretty flexible except for some occasional travel. Please let me know if there are a few dates and times that work best for you.

Congrats again and I hope to hear from you soon.

All the best,
Gwen Keyes Fleming
