Johns-Manville Picks 2 Directors

Fabian Bachrach

William F. May

John P. Schroeder

The Johns-Manville Corporation, a producer of asbestos products, announced here yesterday the election to its board of William F. May, chairman of the American Can Company, and John P. Schroeder, senior vice president of the Morgan Guaranty Trust Company.

Mr. May, who is 51 years old and a native of Chicago, also is a director of the Bankers Trust Company, the Great American Insurance Company, M&T Chemicals, Inc., and the Chromium Corporation of America.

The executive was graduated from University of Rochester in 1937 and was elected to Phi Beta Kappa. Mr. May joined American Can in 1938 and became chairman in 1965.

Mr. Schroeder is 48 years of age, a native of Montclair, N. J., and a graduate of Yale University.

He joined Morgan Guaranty in 1945 and was elected senior vice president in 1963. He is now in charge of the national group in the general banking division.

Mr. Schroeder is a director of the Phelps Dodge Corporation and the Mountainside Hospital in Montclair.
