Hi Samantha,

Would love to have you join us at this reception in honor of the work of Doc Hendley and Wine to Water - a little bit about WTW below and the cause. You'll recognize a few of the names on the host committee list. Promises to be a fun evening.

Brent

WTW is an international non-profit committed to serving in community to provide clean water for those in need, and empowers communities through water access, water filtration, and better sanitation, and hygiene. Currently, WTW serves communities in the Amazon, Haiti and the Dominican Republic, East Africa, Nepal and Cambodia. The evening is about raising greater awareness of and helping to solve the world's water crisis.

- 663 million people do not have access to clean water.
- 2.4 billion people lack access to improved sanitation.
- Dirty water kills 5,000 children a day.
- Increasing access to clean water and sanitation empowers women and girls, improving personal security and literacy - helping lift communities out of poverty.

Doc founded WTW in 2004 during the Sudan Darfur humanitarian crisis (where water was used as a weapon of war), and was subsequently recognized by CNN as a 2009 CNN Hero - here is a 90 second CNN clip of Doc's story and the amazing work of WTW

* * *

Nearly one billion people in the world today lack access to clean water. Help us fight the world's water crisis one filter, one well, one community at a time.

Contributions Welcome!

For those unable to attend, please consider contributing to WTW's work. Help us reach our goal of $20K for water filters and boots on-the-ground projects. Click below:

<http://campaigns.winetowater.org/campaigns/3753-d-c-happy-hour-featuring-doc-hendley>

Suggested contribution levels: $50 (1 filter in Haiti/DR), $100 (1 filter in Uganda)
$500 (1 community well in Cambodia), or $1500 (1 community well in Nepal).
