CSF to Host Inaugural Conservation Classic at Colorado's Sanctuary Golf Course

The Congressional Sportsmen's Foundation (CSF) will host the inaugural Conservation Classic golf tournament at the Sanctuary golf course in Sedalia, CO on July 9th.

Presented by Re/Max, this tournament will give supporters from across the sportsmen's community the opportunity to play on one of America's most exclusive and renowned courses. Attendees will also be treated to a private performance by acclaimed country musician and CSF Ambassador Lucas Hoge while enjoying a wild game dinner and tasting wine from Napa

Valley's Double Eagle vineyards. Guests will also have an opportunity to bid on some amazing auction items ranging from a Montana fishing adventure with Huey Lewis to a South Dakota Pheasant hunt with famed actor Gerald McRaney and General Walt Boomer.

For more information on sponsorships or to RSVP, please contact CSF's Event Manager, Kelli Roessler, at kroessler@congressionalsportsmen.org or call (202) 543-6850 x32.
