Q Socially?
A Yes, sure.
Q You didn't work in the same building, did you?
A No, no, but we always had a reasonably close relation with Owens-Illinois because our people came from there and they were friends.
Q Did the Owens-Illinois Company continue to exchange information and share information with Owens-Corning throughout the 1950s?
A Yes.
Q And if things were important to joint ventures that they were involved with, Owens-Illinois would share information with Owens-Corning?
A Yeah, well, I would say so, yes, sure.
Q In the 1950s, from 1953 to '58, Owens-Illinois and Owens-Corning were working together with regard to Kaylo and Owens-Illinois was manufacturing it and Owens-Corning was selling it?
A Yeah, and were going to manufacture it.
Q During that period of time, do you know
