This year the inspections have received the support of all five Peninsula mayors who have declared this Safety Check Week. Maj. Gen. William Breckinridge, Fort Ord commanding general, has also given his endorsement by suggesting that all the civilian and military cars driven on the post be checked at the lanes.

Last year, the first time the mass safety check was ever held on the Peninsula, 600 cars were given the 10-point inspection by the check line mechanics.

Registration for kindergarten in Carmel Valley schools is being taken this week. Tularcitos School will take registration tomorrow from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Carmelo School has no regular registration day, but Principal Dick Lawitzke said he would appreciate advance notice of prospective kindergartners.

To be eligible for kindergarten next year children must have been born on or before Dec. 2, 1953.

No Sacks For WACs
DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—There'll be no sacks for the WACs. "Hattie Carnegie designed our uniforms in red city 1850—to fit," says Lt. Col. Vlastilo W. Addison, chief of recruiting for the Women's Army Corps. "We use that have dress blues and taupe and in the next two years we're going to be wearing green, but chemises and day. (trapezes—never!)"

"Perhaps nowhere else in the world are ambitious young professionals and talented amateurs offered such an opportunity to participate in a festival of international prestige," said Miss Denby, "and to sing through the weeks of rehearsal under the direction of such renowned musicians as Sandoz Salgo, professor of music of Stanford University and musical conductor of the Carmel festival, with his two assistants, Gilbert Boyer and Angie Machado."

The 21st Carmel Bach Festival will be held July 14 to 29. The Peninsula chorus, augmented by professionals, will be featured in two of Johann Sebastian Bach's "major works," "The Magnificat"
