Headquarters

General headquarters from which the "Re-elect Parkman State Senator" campaign is being directed have been opened at 215 South Ellsworth street, San Mateo.

A telephone line has been installed and an office manager will be on duty all day at the campaign headquarters.

Meanwhile, supporters of State [illegible] the June 1 primary election were elated today over receipt of a letter from Richard Graves, executive director of the League of California Cities.

The league, through Graves, praised the state senate finance committee on state and local taxation for its services to local city government and commended Senator Parkman for his services on the committee.

Stanford Alumni Meet Tomorrow

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, May 14. Reports on Stanford from Lloyd W. Dinkelspiel, newest and youngest member of the board of trustees, and Tom Martinoff, president of the Associated Students, will highlight the closing session tomorrow at the university's sixteenth annual alumni conference on the campus.

Mr. Dinkelspiel, San Francisco attorney and member of the class of 1939, will discuss "Stanford and the Winds of Freedom." Mr. Martinoff, navy veteran from Portland, who leads the largest student body in Stanford history, will explain the role of "The Stanford Student: In the World and on the Campus."

Their talks will conclude the full day program of conference activities at which an attendance of more than 1000 Stanford alumni and friends from Northern California and Nevada are expected.

Optometrists Meet at Villa

The San Francisco Optometric association will hold its regular monthly dinner meeting at the Villa Chartier next Monday evening.

This announcement was released today by the office of director of public information, California Optometric association, Dr. L. LoPresti, who is a resident of San Mateo.

Matters of importance to be discussed [illegible] congress of American Optometric association, which convenes in San Francisco on June 20 and will meet for four days.

The ladies of the women's auxiliary will meet with the member optometrists for dinner and then gather at the home of Mrs. LoPresti, 230 Grinnell avenue, for their

Put on Bicycles

More than 75 bicycles of students at Borel school were given extra protection when members of the San Mateo Lions club placed Scotchlite on each yesterday. Headed by Vic W. McCord, a number of Lions visited the school.

Assisting were R. G. Scott, safety [illegible] Borel school; Ray L. Colvin, and Charles Zeitenhaehl, a teacher at Borel and head of traffic activities. Fifteen members of the Borel traffic squad participated.

[illegible] On Weapons Charge

(Times Redwood City Bureau)

REDWOOD CITY, May 14.—Joseph Hall, 20-year-old East Palo Alto machinist, today was serving a 90-day county jail sentence meted out by Redwood City Justice E. T. McAuliffe following his conviction of exhibiting a weapon in a rude and angry manner. He was arrested May 4 after C. L. Graham and Bernice Costa, south county residents, on May 2 had [illegible] on a complaint charging that [illegible] client. He pleaded guilty after withdrawing an earlier plea of not guilty and demanding a trial.

No matter what you're planning to paint we have the perfect answer in our full line of Fuller Paints—they last!

Free Delivery Open Monday Through Saturday

Burlingame HARDWARE

1288 Burlingame Ave. Phone 3-0885

Parker Herbex

SCALP TREATMENT

A few good scalp treatments before your next permanent wave will give

LOYOLA BEAUTY SALON

1476 El Camino Real, Belmont. Phone 166-J

PRECISION WATCH REPAIRING

3 day CARLYLE'S 1 year

Cypress Lawn

Northern California's LARGEST and FINEST non sectarian MAUSOLEUM

Vacation SPECIAL

NO DOWN PAYMENT

You Can Get BUDGET TERMS On

ATLAS TIRES

At

[illegible] Chevron Gas Station

6th and B Streets Phone

KSMO

Melody

Fifty-five minutes [illegible] morning enjoyment keep you humming

For a M[illegible]

M-E-L

San Mateo Times May 14, 1948 P 5 8:00 to

NEWS

The World's