Q Approximately how close was the dispatch office that he worked at on Oliver Street from the garage opening of the shop?

A Well, it was a doorway where the drivers went up to the dispatcher window and this area went right into the shop area and they had boards up there where the keys were kept, run numbers and so forth.

Q Now, when did you retire again?

A February of 1980.

Q And did Mr. Wood retire before or after you?

A Mr. Wood retired before I did.

Q Now, other than a dispatcher in the '60s, do you recall if he ever got any other promotions at the post office?

A Not that I can say.

Q When was the last time that you recall seeing Mr. Wood alive?

A Me?

Q Yes, you. When did you last see him alive?

A A few months before he died.