

1 felt bad. But I couldn't explain to you all how he
2 felt because he would say I hurt.

3 He would be on his knees sometimes and do
4 like this (indicating), and I said, well, pray a
5 little bit, maybe if we pray a little bit, maybe you
6 will feel better. And I would sit there and pray with
7 him, say prayers, but to no avail.

8 Q During the -- after you retired in March of 9 1990, during the day what would you do to take care of 10 your husband?

11 A Beg your pardon?

12 Q After you retired in March of 1990 --

13 A I heard you.

14 Q -- what did you do during the day to take
15 care of your husband?

16 A You said what did I do to take care of him?

17 Q Yes. How were your days spent taking care
18 of him?

19 A To tell you the truth, we would just sit
20 there and look at each other and rock.

21 Q You would just sit and just rock?
