Subject: BREAKING NEWS: Obama: DACA decision goes against 'common sense'

Former President Barack Obama issued a statement Tuesday calling President Donald Trump's decision to rescind DACA "contrary to our spirit, and to common sense."

"We all want safe, secure borders and a dynamic economy, and people of goodwill can have legitimate disagreements about how to fix our immigration system so that everybody plays by the rules," Obama wrote. "But that's not what the action that the White House took today is about."

Obama signed the executive order creating the program in June 2012 and sees it as a major achievement. He promised after the election that any move to get rid of it would prompt him to speak out against his successor.
