and to some extent inadequate, from the aspect of disinterested scientific critique.
In my judgment the position was vulnerable to some extent, and I was unwilling to subject myself to this situation, by taking a position that was not accessible, merely to advance their interests through the professional prestige of the laboratory,

Essentially the policy of the laboratory is to support its own findings in the courts or elsewhere, but to appear as experts in litigation only in the public interest, in the interest of a patient, or in situations where sponsors of the laboratory have a right to expect us to protect their interests.
