Sure, I'm sorry. I reached out to the communications staff there last week.

Please contact Wendi Price at wendi\_price@inhofe.senate.gov She is his scheduler and can get you on the books.

I'm hoping to meet with you this week. And I have a question. Who should I contact in Senator Inhofe's office to arrange an interview with him?

Would you want to meet for coffee? I would suggest the Trump hotel lobby because it's across the street, but I can understand if that doesn't suit the situation.

Agreed! But misery (or in this case - exhaustion) loves company! 4pm works for me. Where do you want to meet? I'm in Georgetown, but can easily travel to some place near your offices. Just let me know.

Thanks,

Gwen

What if we get together later that afternoon. Maybe get coffee about 4? And yes, we were likely crazy to take this position so it might be attached to us for a while. Hah.

I thought I'd try a more direct approach to follow in the footsteps of my predecessors and introduce myself. Hopefully by now you've had an opportunity to settle into the cadence of the role and I wanted to see if your schedule would allow time for us to meet in person. I've recently started the next chapter of my career at a law firm in DC so my schedule is currently pretty flexible except for some occasional travel. Please let me know if there are a few dates and times that work best for you.
