Statewide Group Formed to Fight Lottery Plan

Opponents of a legalized lottery in California have formed a statewide committee, it was announced yesterday in Los Angeles.

The announcement was made by Laughlin E. Waters, former U. S. attorney and chairman of "Californians Against a State Lottery."

Don Fazackerley, former police commission member, will be Northern California chairman, and Sheriff emeritus Eugene W. Biscailuz will be Southern California chairman of the organization, Waters announced.

...support program would get $1.75 per $2 ticket sold.
