Hi Kevin,

Apologies for the delayed response. Are we all set after the discussion today? Please let me know if I can provide any additional information.

Would greatly appreciate confirmation of Exxon's representative, if timing allows.

Ashley,

My apologies but I wasn't even aware that ExxonMobil was invited to the North Slope tour until I saw their name on the agenda.

Can you tell me who from ExxonMobil has confirmed to attend? Have you or anyone else reached out to anyone at ExxonMobil to invite their attendance?

If there is someone else coordinating invites and attendance please let me know.

Appreciate your help.

Regards,

Kevin
