3 13. Abex objects to this Interrogatory on the fol-
4 lowing grounds:

- 5 1. Burden
6 2. Overly Broad

7 Without waiving these objections, Abex states that invoices in-8 dicating sales of asbestos-containing friction products manu-
9 factured by Abex are on file in Virginia for some time beginning
10 in 1976 through 1986 only, and can be made available for inspec-
11 tion and copying upon receipt of an appropriate document re-
12 quest. Such invoices, for the most part, are arranged numeri-
13 cally and chronologically by year, and not by customer, product
14 or state.

16 15. Abex objects to this Interrogatory on the fol-
17 lowing grounds:

- 18 1. Burden
19 2. Overly Broad
20 3. Lack of Particularity

21 Without waiving these objections, Abex states that some rebrand-
22 ing may have taken place; however Abex is without sufficient 23 knowledge and information as to the scope or nature of any such 24 rebranding.
