Dear Dr. Kehoe:

Thank you for your letter of February 28th. I am pleased that you have corrected my impression that you do not wish to travel. I am delighted that you getting back into touch with the general situation, and I certainly would like to do my part to assist. I do want to come to Cincinnati before very long to visit with you and also with Sid Lerner who, I understand, has established a relationship with N.L. Industries, formerly National Lead Company.

I will keep you posted and will try to set up a date before very long.

Best regards.

Sincerely,

Jerome F. Cole, Sc.D.
