**MEDIA ADVISORY****

U.S. Transportation Secretary Sean P. Duffy to Visit Hanwha Philly Shipyard

WASHINGTON, D.C. – On Monday, April 28th, Secretary Duffy will tour the Hanwha Philly Shipyard to view the state-of-the-art facility and highlight the shipyard as an exemplary model for American shipbuilding excellence. This visit follows President Trump's Executive Order to restore American maritime dominance and boost domestic ship production for both commercial and defense vessels. The Secretary will be joined by U.S. Senator McCormick, representatives from Hanwha, and labor union leaders. Following the tour, Secretary Duffy and Senator McCormick will hold a media availability.

WHEN: Monday, April 28, 2025
Media should arrive no later than 9:45 AM ET

WHERE: Location will be sent upon RSVP.

RSVP: Credentialed media wishing to attend must RSVP to events@dot.gov to receive arrival instructions.
