

Any chance you are involved in working on the new regulations on storing potentially toxic chemicals near major bodies of water? I know court deadline for promulgating was yesterday