

Meeting with ECOS Leaders and EPA Regional Administrators
Tuesday, January 30th, 2018
3:15p – 4:15p
Executive Room at Omni Shoreham Hotel

Meeting Purpose: Cooperative Federalism 2.0 requires a functional and productive relationship between States and EPA. A critical element of the relationship is that of the State Environmental Commissioner or Director and their EPA Regional Administrator. The purpose of this meeting is to provide EPA Regional Administrators an introduction to Cooperative Federalism 2.0 from the states' perspective; to begin dialogue on how EPA Regional Administrators can get engaged with Cooperative Federalism 2.0, and; to begin dialogue on what a consistent and productive State Leader/Regional Administrator relationship entails, including how issues should be handled if they include Regions and/or EPA headquarters.
