The Board of Directors shall have the power to appoint an executive committee and other committees, and may delegate to the executive committee any of the powers and authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation, except the power to declare dividends and to adopt, amend, or repeal by-laws. Section 3. ELECTION AND TENURE OF OFFICE.

The Directors shall be elected at the annual meeting of shareholders, to serve for one year and until their successors are elected and have qualified. If any such annual meeting is not held, or Directors are not elected thereat, the Directors may be elected at any special meeting of stockholders held for that purpose.

Section 4. VACANCIES.

(a) A vacancy in the Board of Directors shall exist in case of the death, resignation or removal of any Director, or if the shareholders shall increase the authorized number of Directors but shall fail at the meeting at which such increase is authorized, or at an adjournment thereof, to elect the additional Directors so provided for, or in case the shareholders fail at any time to elect the full number of authorized Directors.

(b) No reduction of the number of Directors shall have the effect of removing any Director prior to the expiration of his term of office.

(c) Vacancies in the Board of Directors may be filled by a majority of the remaining Directors, though less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining Director, and each Director so elected shall hold office until his successor is elected at an annual meeting of shareholders or at a special meeting called for that purpose.

(d) The shareholders may at any time elect a Director to fill any vacancy not filled by the Directors, and may elect the additional Directors at any meeting at which an amendment of the by-laws is voted authorizing an increase in the number of Directors.

(e) If the Board of Directors accepts the resignation of a Director tendered to take effect at a future time, the Board, or the shareholders, shall have power to elect a successor to take office when the resignation shall become effective.

Section 5. REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS.

The entire Board of Directors or any individual Director may be removed from office by the shareholders as provided by the Corporations Code of the State of California.

Section 6. PLACE OF MEETING.

Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the principal office of the corporation, or at such other place, within or without the State of California, as may be designated by resolution of the Board of Directors or written consent of all the members of the Board. Any meeting shall be valid, wherever held, if held by the written consent of all members of the Board of Directors, given either before or after the meeting and filed with the Secretary of the corporation.

Section 7. ORGANIZATION MEETINGS.

The organization meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held immediately following the annual meetings of shareholders. Notice of such meeting is hereby dispensed with.

Section 8. OTHER REGULAR MEETINGS.

Other regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at such times as may be designated by resolution of the Board of Directors.

Section 9. SPECIAL MEETINGS--NOTICES.

Special meetings of the Board of Directors for any purpose or purposes may be called at any time by the President or, if he is absent or unable or refuses to act, by any Vice President or by any two Directors.

Written notice of the time and place of special meetings shall be delivered personally to the Directors or sent to each Director by letter or by telegram; charges prepaid, addressed to him at his address as it is shown upon the records of the corporation, or if it is not so shown on such records or is not readily ascertainable, at the place in which the meetings of the Directors are regularly held. In case such notice is mailed or telegraphed, it shall be deposited in the United States mail or delivered to the telegraph company in the place in which the principal office of the corporation is located at least forty-eight hours prior to the time of the holding of the meeting. In case such notice is delivered as above provided, it shall be so delivered at least twenty-four hours prior to the time of the holding of the meeting. The transactions of any meeting of the Board of Directors, however called and noticed or wherever held, shall be as valid as though had at a meeting duly held if, either before or after the meeting, each of the Directors not present signs a written waiver of notice, or a consent to holding such meeting, or an approval of the minutes thereof. All such waivers, consents, or approvals shall be filed with the Secretary of the corporation.

Section 12. QUORUM AND VOTE.

A majority of the authorized number of directors shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. In the absence of a quorum, the Directors present may adjourn from time to time, but may not transact any business.

The action of a majority of the Directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum, when duly assembled, is valid as a corporate act.

Section 13. ACTION WITHOUT MEETING.

Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting, if all of the Directors individually or collectively consent in writing to such action. Such written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board of Directors. Such action by written consent shall have the same effect as a unanimous vote of the Directors. Any certificate or document which relates to action so taken shall state that the action was taken by unanimous written consent of the Board of Directors without a meeting, and that the by-laws authorize the Directors so to act.
