Tony:

Thank you for participating in the roundtable discussion at EPA! Your input is valued, and I'm thankful for your willingness to attend.

Please know I appreciate your leadership and commitment to improving air quality, while also providing reliable, resilient and cost-effective electricity to citizens across the Nation. Your work is consequential to energy security and environmental stewardship. I look forward to continued dialogue, and again, appreciate your time attending the meeting.

All the best,

E. Scott Pruitt
