Dear Dr. Kehoe:

Thank you very much for your letter of June 12, 1964, above subject.

Our attorney, Mr. Uhel O. Barrickman, indicated to me on the telephone today that it will be impossible for him to be in Cincinnati this week or on the 26th or 27th of June. Under the circumstances I suggested to Mr. Barrickman that I am sure in a telephone conversation with you, you would be able to be of great assistance to him. Mr. Barrickman will telephone you some day this week and we will appreciate any assistance you can offer him.

Sincerely,

Dana Brown
