Joc,

My sincere apologies for not being able to meet with you and your leadership group. I know that you made immense efforts to make the trip to D.C. for our meeting. I was not feeling well yesterday and, unfortunately, needed to cancel several meetings and speeches at the last moment. Please relay my regrets to the members of your leadership. I hope that the meeting with my team was productive in my absence.

Stuart Jolly relayed your invitation for me to tour your facilities in Florida at some point in the future. I welcome the opportunity to do so. My scheduling team will keep it in mind for a suitable time to do so.

All the best,

E. Scott Pruitt

*Appreciate the invite to Fla. — let's coordinate a trip
this year if possible!*
