George and Don,

I would support contacting Fitzaimmons for purposes of establishing availability and cost.

It has been highlighted to me as I began poking around in my project files, that I don't have a copy of the proposed/final budget. Perhaps, we need to revisit the budget and agree to it in some final form. I don't recall establishing a budget for the communications team. Should the budget be posted on the web page?

As I think about it, there seem to be a number of loose ends to be firmed up by the OS committee. I would like to suggest a meeting/call following the SRP meeting, when we could hear the report/findings and try to firm up some of the other outstanding items.

Patsy

Chair of the Oversight Committee,

I thought that this item should go before the BP Team as the Chair of the Oversight Committee. My understanding of the intent stated in the Consortium Agreement is that any outlay of funds needs to be done with the consent of the Oversight Committee, and did not want to proceed until I cleared this with the Chair at least. I plan on contacting Mr. Fitzsimmons to at see what his rates are and to see if his level of participation has been discussed with him. I will not proceed any further than that, however, until I have had a chance to discuss with you and Lynn Russo.

Please advise.

Thank you,

George, one of the follow-up items from the Oversight committee meeting several weeks ago was the issue of contracting with outside counsel to support the consortium. Glenna's note below has the name and number of the lawyer the company contacts had agreed should do the job. Could you put that information into the process such that the necessary contacts/agreements can get done? Thanks.

Lynn

Lynn,

Shell and Chevron counsel and I have discussed and agreed that Mark Fitzsimmons is a good lawyer and candidate for use as a consultant on legal issues that may arise regarding the proposed API Benzene Study. Mark is located in the Washington D.C. Steptoe offices and his phone no. is (202) 429-8068.

I recommend Mark to you for your panel's consideration. If I can be of any further assistance, please do not hesitate to call.
