Re: Gordon David Thompson, et al.
v. Conoco, Inc., et al.
Our File No. 10180-4

Dear Robert:

I think perhaps a couple of your client's medical records and my letter of August 6, 1994 crossed in the mail. When I returned to my office today, I noticed in my stack of mail, a November 3, 1993 letter from Dr. Julian B. Hill and a letter from Beth Swords, narrative coordinator with a Dr. Eckman's office. There was no transmittal letter with these records, and I am assuming that they constitute the first production that was due within ten days from the minute entry. If I am mistaken and there are other records coming that you presently have, please let me know as soon as possible.

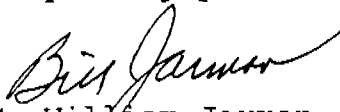

By copy of this letter to all defense counsel of record, I am enclosing copies of the two letters you have given to me.

Robert, I would appreciate it if you would forward Dr. Eckman's narrative and records as soon as you receive them.

Thanks for your cooperation.

Very truly yours,

G. William Jarman
