Subject: Meeting Request: Corning CEO, February 26th

Good evening,

I hope this message finds you well. On behalf of Wendell Weeks, Chairman and CEO of Corning Incorporated, I would like to request a meeting on February 20-21.

Corning is a global leader in materials science, with a 170-year legacy of innovation and category-defining products. U.S. manufacturing remains a priority for the company, and Corning continues to make significant investments to strengthen this sector. Recently, Corning has made strategic investments to reshore and expand key technologies, contributing to energy independence and economic growth.

Mr. Weeks would welcome the opportunity to discuss Corning's latest initiatives in the U.S. and explore ways to collaborate in advancing domestic manufacturing and innovation. He is available on February 26th.

Thank you for your consideration.

Best regards,
Bill Viney

Dear Secretary Burgum,

On behalf of the American Chamber of Commerce in Australia, we'd like to invite you to address this year's AmCham Australia delegation to Washington on either Monday, March 17, or Wednesday, March 19, as part of the fourth annual AmCham Alliance Summit. Topics will include defense, energy, trade, critical minerals, cyber, and secure supply chains. The invitation from April Palmerlee, CEO of AmCham Australia, is attached.

This year, 35 CEOs, chairs, and university chancellors will join Meg O'Neill (CEO of Australia's largest energy producer, Woodside) and David Moffatt (Chair of Australia's largest infrastructure services provider, Ventia Services Group; Chair of Apollo Funds) here in the nation's capital to strengthen relationships and economic partnerships between the United States and Australia.

We'll send additional details, including delegation names and biographies, as we draw closer to March 17 – 19. In the meantime, please reach out with any questions, and thank you for your consideration.

Thank you all so much for your assistance! We've completed the form, attached, and have also provided the delegation biography packet for AmCham Australia.

If there's any further information you all might need, we'd be more than happy to provide it.

Have a wonderful weekend, and we look forward to talking to you all again soon!

Dear Secretary Burgum,

On behalf of the American Chamber of Commerce in Australia, we'd like to invite you to address this year's AmCham Australia delegation to Washington on either Monday, March 17, or Wednesday, March 19, as part of the fourth annual AmCham Alliance Summit. Topics will include defense, energy, trade, critical minerals, cyber, and secure supply chains. The invitation from April Palmerlee, CEO of AmCham Australia, is attached.

This year, 35 CEOs, chairs, and university chancellors will join Meg O'Neill (CEO of Australia's largest energy producer, Woodside) and David Moffatt (Chair of Australia's largest infrastructure services provider, Ventia Services Group; Chair of Apollo Funds) here in the nation's capital to strengthen relationships and economic partnerships between the United States and Australia.

We'll send additional details, including delegation names and biographies, as we draw closer to March 17 – 19. In the meantime, please reach out with any questions, and thank you for your consideration.

Hi William-

My apologies for just getting back to you. We are still working through the inbox, and this must have slipped through the cracks. Will Mr. Weeks be back in DC in the future? Please let me know and I would be happy to help set up a meeting.

Thank you,

Lucy Herrington

JoDee -

Your long lost friend from state government days. Hope you are doing well and enjoying the new job. We just wrapped up NGA/RGA - was a busy week! Told Jace I missed seeing him there - had been such a fixture.

I wanted to flag the below from my colleague.

Thank you!

Subject: Meeting Request: Corning CEO, February 26th

Good evening,

I hope this message finds you well. On behalf of Wendell Weeks, Chairman and CEO of Corning Incorporated, I would like to request a meeting on February 20-21.

Corning is a global leader in materials science, with a 170-year legacy of innovation and category-defining products. U.S. manufacturing remains a priority for the company, and Corning continues to make significant investments to strengthen this sector. Recently, Corning has made strategic investments to reshore and expand key technologies, contributing to energy independence and economic growth.

Mr. Weeks would welcome the opportunity to discuss Corning's latest initiatives in the U.S. and explore ways to collaborate in advancing domestic manufacturing and innovation. He is available on February 26th.

Thank you for your consideration.

Best regards,
Bill Viney
