Subject: Hello and Deregulation

Hey guys,

Hope you're doing well! I saw Western Caucus's release this afternoon introducing Rep. Biggs as the Chief Regulatory Reform Officer and Rep. Curtis as a new member. Just wanted to put the EPA's new deregulatory website on your radar. The site went live earlier this week outlining all EPA rules that are being repealed or modified. Feel free to use this source or piggy back off it in terms of transparency, cutting red-tape, repealing job killing regulations, providing regulatory certainty, etc.

EPA Administrator Pruitt tweeted about this as well today. See tweet here and we should be pushing some overall numbers out throughout the day. There's a lot of good info if you want numbers.

Please don't hesitate to reach out if I can be helpful!
