Subject: Re: EPA questions

Hey Bob, for attribution to "an EPA spokesperson," please

EPA is in the process of developing guidance on this topic. We expect to release the draft guidance for public comment.

The publication is AgriBusiness Global, and my deadline is Friday, but I will begin writing on Wednesday. I understand the EPA guidelines have been delayed by a year or two, or at least that's what I've been told.

Good afternoon Bob,

My colleague Josh Singer, from our Chicago office, forwarded me your question. Let me look into this for you.

Who are you writing your story for and when are you planning to publish?

Thanks, R.

David Beaudreau Jr., of the Biostimulant Coalition, told me that the EPA is scheduled to release guidance before the end of 2017 regarding the use of biostimulants on crops.

I would like to know what kind of guidance or regulations the EPA is planning. I know nothing about it.

Does the EPA have any existing regulations on the use of biostimulants? If so, what are they?

My deadline is Wednesday Sept. 20. My phone number is 216-313-4880 and my email address is [REDACTED] Ex. 6

Thanks,
