Gentlemen:

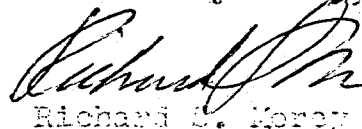

Enclosed you will find a copy of the portion of the transcript of the Omaha hearing which contains your testimony. Please examine both your direct testimony and cross-examination carefully and advise me as soon as possible at the above address of any corrections which should be made in the transcript as to your testimony.

In suggesting corrections, you should bear in mind that corrections to a transcript cannot be made for the purpose of making substantive changes in testimony. They are intended merely to correct errors made by the court reporter. Consequently, corrections should be limited to instances in which the reporter misunderstood what was said, transcribed the wrong word, punctuated incorrectly, etc.

If any of you has any questions about this, please give me a call.

With best regards.

Yours very truly,

Richard C. Moray
