Subject: SAVE THE DATE: AAPCA's 2017 Fall Business Meeting, September 20 - 22 in Raleigh, NC

The Association of Air Pollution Control Agencies' (AAPCA) 2017 Fall Business Meeting will be held September 20 – 22 in Raleigh, North Carolina at the Doubletree by Hilton Raleigh Brownstone-University.

The current schedule for Wednesday, September 20 includes an afternoon topical session focused on long-term/succession planning and an opening reception open to all attendees, as well as the AAPCA Air Directors/Board Business Session (open to Board members or their designees). Participation on Thursday, September 21 is open to all interested participants, while sessions on Friday, September 22 are limited to AAPCA members and governmental attendees.

Registration for the meeting will open in early June on AAPCA's website, and the hotel block is now accepting reservations here. Registration rates for the 2017 Fall Business Meeting are $125 for members and governmental attendees, and $350 for non-governmental attendees. The hotel room rate is $111/night plus applicable taxes/fees.

In case you missed it, AAPCA recent provided comments on the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency's evaluation of existing regulations under Executive Order 13777, as well as feedback regarding fiscal year 2018 appropriations for state and local air quality management grants and principles for Clean Air Act modernization. You can find these comments on the main AAPCA website.

Thanks – we look forward to seeing you in Raleigh!
