Todd Hurls Spear Over 200 Feet

SAN JOSE, May 7.—Evading the lethargy which has hounded him all season, Lowell Todd, San Jose State college javelin champion, won the Senior PAA championship in the javelin throw at Berkeley last week with a throw of 208 ft. 6 in.

A transfer from Modesto junior college and a former Pacific Grove student, Todd finally overcame the 200 foot jinx which has bothered him this year.

Todd set a San Jose State college record at 219 ft. 3 in. last year in winning the Junior PAA title at San Jose and represented the Spartans at the Drake Relays where he placed second to Anton Terry, national champion from Hardin-Simmons.
