CONFIDENTIAL

1-31-46

Subject: Continental Oil Refining Co., Artesia, N. M.
Mr. Page called today and in your and my absence talked with Miss Sheppard.

Nothing is to be put in writing. Report of Jan. 23 may be revealed. Report of Jan. 25 is not to be revealed to representative of Travelers Insurance Company or anyone else. I presume that he referred to the reports I have taken from the file and attached on top. Please destroy this note.

I have also attached Dr. Schradin's file for the necessary protection. He did not have copies of the reports referred to above. There may be something, however, in his report of Dec. 22. Will you please talk with Dr. Schradin in the event he is not informed before your return. If anyone called and secured information regarding his or your whereabouts, we were given instructions to call either of you immediately.
