Thermal Insulation

October 24, 1969

Mr. James E. Hambly
Executive Secretary
TIAC
583 Church Street
Toronto 5, Ontario, Canada

Thank you Jim,

for your letter of October 14, concerning "THERMAL INSULATION."

The development costs of this book ran in excess of $35,000. This cost was underwritten in part by about 200 concerns who, like the 14 TIAC Members, contributed $150 or more.

The original policy established by IDCNA's Board of Directors at the time the said contributions were solicited was for each doner of $150 to receive one copy of the book, "THERMAL INSULATION."

Your Members who contributed have received a gold bound copy of the manual, which was a special printing for those who helped to make this book possible.

I trust this clears up any questions.

Truthfully yours,

John C. Pollock
Executive Director
