GOODMAN ELIMINATED
 George Voigt, Great Neck, N. Y., and Don Alve, the popular Portland amateur, had a great battle before the New Yorker won, 3 and 1. All that Johnny Goodman had left to console him Wednesday night was the knowledge that he had put out the mighty Bobby Jones for the Nebraska boy was promptly defeated by Lawson Little, San Francisco, 2 and 1, in the second round.

BORAH ASKS LOBBY QUIZ

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4—A demand that the Senate investigate whether William D. Shearer, naval expert, was employed by American shipbuilding companies to lobby against disarmament was made in the Senate today by Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho. Under questioning by Borah, Chairman Hale of the Senate naval affairs committee announced he would take up with his committee the matter of investigation. Borah replied that unless the inquiry is started he would propose a resolution to require an investigation.
