ert Toth and Barbara Toth, his wife.

Now at this day comes Petitioner, Hartwell G. Grain, and files and presents to the Court his petition, duly verified by affidavit, praying for the appointment of a suitable person as successor trustee, submits the same to the Court upon the proof adduced; and the Court having heard the same and being fully advised in the premises, finds: that, by a certain Deed of Trust, dated April 23rd, 1929, and recorded in the office of the Recorder of Deeds, in St. Louis County, Missouri, in book 1000, page 258, to which deed particular reference is herein made, the grantor therein named, conveyed to William Keane, Jr. as trustee, the real estate in St. Louis County, Missouri, therein particularly described, to secure the payment of certain notes therein also particularly described; that the principal and interest notes are past due and remain in default; that petitioner is the legal owner and holder of said principal and interest notes, and deed of trust; that William Keane, Jr., the trustee therein named has refused to act as such Trustee and that it is necessary that some suitable person be appointed trustee to execute said trust. It is, therefore, ordered by the Court that Henry W. J. Rott, of St. Louis County, Missouri, be and hereby is appointed trustee to execute said deed of trust, in place of said original trustee, with all the power and authority said deed vested in said original Trustee.
