Thanks for the hospitality, Devin. We enjoyed the visit and conversations.

Unfortunately the mild weather did not stick around for the second day. Have a good weekend.

Troy,

Great to see you again on Thursday, and thanks for making it work to spend so much time with our employee team and leadership. I thought it was a worthwhile conversation and one we would like to continue. Clearly Administrator Pruitt and Todd have a good working relationship and I believe we can help find common ground going forward.

We are following up on the action items from the discussion and will be in touch. Please let me know if there is anything else we can do in the interim. Hope the rest of your visits went well, and have a good weekend.
