Obergruppenfuhrer senior group leader was a Nazi Party paramilitary rank that was first created in 1932 as a rank of the Sturmabteilung, and adopted by the Schutzstaffel one year later. Until April 1942, it was the highest commissioned SS rank, inferior only to Reichsfuhrer Heinrich Himmler, which was the internal abbreviation for Himmler senior group leader, the rank of Obergruppenfuhrer was senior to Gruppenfuhrer. A similarly named rank of Unterguppenfuhrer existed in the SA from 1929 to 1930 and as a title until 1933. In April 1942, the new rank of Oberst Gruppenfuhrer was created which was above Obergruppenfuhrer and below Reichsfuhrer.

In addition to recording and performing concerts, ZZ Top has also been involved with films and television. In 1990, the group appeared as the band at the party in the film Back to the Future Part III, and played the Three Men in a Tub in the movie Mother Goose Rock n Rhyme. ZZ Top made further appearances, including the Gumby with a Pokey episode of Two and a Half Men in 2010 and the Hank Gets Dusted episode of King of the Hill in 2007. The band was also guest hosts on an episode of WWE Raw. Billy Gibbons also has a recurring role as the father of Angela Montenegro in the television show Bones, though the character is never named, it is strongly implied that Gibbons is playing himself. Their song Sharp Dressed Man was one of the theme songs used for the television show Duck Dynasty, and on the series finale of the show they appeared with Si Robertson as a vocalist to perform the song on stage during Robertson's retirement party. Black Dahlia Films, led by Jamie Burton Chamberlin, of Seattle and Los Angeles, has contributed documentaries and back line screen work, the footage on back screens during live shows and has become an integral part of the band's film making.
