Dear 5.1.2e [redacted]

Thank you for your e-mail. We appreciate your invitation to a meeting with the dossier submitters of the Annex XV PFAS restriction proposal, but we will have to decline. The 6-month consultation period ended on September 25, and the dossier submitters and the scientific committees of ECHA can only take into account substantiated information that came in through this consultation. We assume you have submitted your substantiated comments and information in this consultation and we will take any relevant information into account in the updates of our proposal.

Met vriendelijke groet / Kind regards,

5.1.2e [redacted]

Subject: Meeting Request PFAS REACH Restriction - Asahi Kasei

Dear 5.1.2e [redacted] Dear 5.1.2e [redacted]

I am reaching out on behalf of the Asahi Kasei Group, a leading multinational Japanese chemical company, committed to contributing to society through innovative solutions in three core business sectors: Material, Homes, and Health Care. Our products are relevant for a broad range of EU industries such as renewable energy, chemical production (including ion exchange membranes), and advanced technologies that include optical fibre and lithium-ion batteries. Our products are exported from Japan to the European Union where Asahi Kasei has distribution sites in the Netherlands, as well as Belgium, France, Germany, Italy, and Sweden.

We are contacting you to request a meeting to discuss the PFAS REACH restriction proposal. We would appreciate the opportunity to exchange views on the proposal either in person or virtually. We would be happy to present to you our company and our position and discuss your views on the PFAS restriction proposal.

We are available at your convenience in the coming weeks.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact us. We look forward to hearing from you.

Kind regards,

5.1.2e [redacted]
