Gov. Scott Appoints Three to Florida Public Service Commission

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – Today, Governor Rick Scott announced the reappointment of Art Graham and the appointment of David “Ritch” Workman and Gary Clark to the Florida Public Service Commission.

Graham, 53, of Jacksonville Beach, is a commissioner of the Florida Public Service Commission. He has previously served as a city councilman for the City of Jacksonville Beach. Graham received his bachelor’s degree from the Georgia Institute of Technology. He is reappointed for a term beginning January 2, 2018, and ending January 1, 2022.

Workman, 44, of Melbourne, is the director of business development at Keiser University. He previously served in the Florida House of Representatives and as a Captain in the Florida Army National Guard. He received his bachelor’s degree from Appalachian State University. He succeeds Ronald Brisé and is appointed for a term beginning January 2, 2018 and ending January 1, 2022.

Clark, 49, of Chipley, is the Deputy Secretary of Land and Recreation of the Florida Department of Environmental Protection. He received his bachelor’s degree from the University of Phoenix. He fills a vacant seat and is appointed for a term beginning September 15, 2017 and ending January 1, 2019.

These appointments are subject to confirmation by the Florida Senate.
