We Start BOYS in Business

We have started over three thousand boys in various parts of the country in a profitable business on their own account. We want a boy to represent

The Saturday Evening Post

In every town. The work can be done after school hours and on Saturdays. It is pleasant, as well as profitable. The magazines are sold among neighbors and friends in offices, stores, as well as in homes.

No Money Required to Begin

The first week's supply is sent free. These are sold at five cents a copy and provide the money to order the following week at wholesale prices.

$225.00 IN EXTRA CASH PRIZES will be distributed among boys who sell five or more copies.

Our First booklet gives portraits of some of our most successful boy agents and their methods.

World's Fair Notes

The Navy Department will detail the Marine Band to participate in the dedication ceremonies at the World's Fair St. Louis April 30.

Word has been received from E. G. Green World's Fair Commissioner to South Africa that Rhodesia has accepted the invitation to participate in the World's Fair St. Louis.

One of the features of the great military parade at the World's Fair St. Louis on dedication day April 30 will be the battery of mountain artillery whose guns are carried in four sections on the backs of as many Missouri mules.

Oklahoma will be well represented at the Dedication exercises at the World's Fair St. Louis. A special train will carry commissioners, Governor and staff full regimental staff military band a battalion of militia and many distinguished citizens and guests making 500 persons in all.

Information has been received by Col. J. A. Oakeson Chief of the Department of Liberal arts that engineering exhibits from the Argentine Republic have been shipped to the Argentine Consul General at New York City and will be forwarded to St. Louis.

Another competitor for the $100,000 prize offered in the aerial tournament at the World's Fair has been announced. Bradford McGregor of Covington Ky. a designer and aviator expert has built a model of an air ship which he says will be a success. He claims he will travel through the air from Covington to St. Louis to show that his plan of aerial navigation is correct.
