BREAKING: ANTI-SCIENCE CRUSADER LAMAR SMITH RETIRING FROM HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

We have AMAZING news, Samantha: GOP Rep. Lamar Smith, the climate-denying CHAIR of the House Committee on Science, just announced his retirement from Congress!!

On behalf of scientists everywhere, we'd like to thank Rep. Smith for NOT running again in 2018! Let's just say we're NOT sorry to see him go.

Chip in $3.14 right now to tell Lamar Smith: "GOOD RIDDANCE"

YES!! We've called Lamar Smith science's Public Enemy Number One -- and for good reason.

For FAR too long, he has been the nemesis of good science and the greatest champion the oil and gas industry could wish for.

In fact, he's accepted more than $700,000 dollars from the oil and gas industry, and he's issued dozens of subpoenas to scientists who contradict his backwards views on climate change.

So, as a going-away present, we want to give Lamar Smith a little something to remember us by.

Chip in $3.14 or more to tell him: "GOOD RIDDANCE!"
