

these roles she worked on addressing water quality and security challenges in power development, mining, rural, riverine and metropolitan contexts.

TBD

Green Innovation Site Visit

Location: TBD

Notes:

- Possible location:
 - Frasers Broadway Precinct: tour led by Professor Stuart White, Director of the Institute for Sustainable Futures where he leads a team of researchers who create change towards sustainable futures through independent, project-based research. Professor White's work focuses on achieving sustainability outcomes at least cost for a range of government, industry and community clients across Australia and internationally. This includes both the design and evaluation of programs for improving resource use efficiency and an assessment of their impact. Professor White has written and presented widely on sustainable futures and is a regular commentator on sustainability issues in the media. The $2bn redevelopment of the Old Kent Brewery site on Broadway in Sydney is one of Australia's most successful examples of green urban regeneration. The University of Technology Sydney ISF was a key partner of Frasers Property in identifying sustainability opportunities for the site. ISF assisted in developing the Frasers Broadway Precinct Water Cycle Strategy to plan significant reductions in overall energy use, water use and solid waste.

TBD

Sydney Harbour Site Visit

Location: Sydney Harbour

Notes:

- Meeting with NSW government and public/private entities on how Australia keeps Sydney Harbour clean and "trash-free"
- To include tour of harbor
- No media but PAS and EPA Press Team will likely take photo spray and engage in social media
- Suggested participants:
 - Ian Kiernan, Clean Up: Ian competed in the solo around-the-world yacht race in 1987 and after seeing littered harbors he was inspired to start an NGO and was the inspiration for "Clean Up Australia Day." Ian gained traction with the United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP), and Clean Up the World was launched in 1993 and has inspired approximately 35 million people from 120 countries annually.
 - Kim McKay AO, Clean Up Sydney Harbour: McKay is the Director and CEO of the Australian Museum, prior Senior Vice President of Global Marketing & Communications for the Discovery Channel and National Geographic in the United States, co-founded the iconic Clean Up Australia and Clean Up the World campaigns, was named one of Australia's 100 Women of Influence by the Australian Financial Review, and co-author of five books.
 - Dr. Peter Steinberg, Sydney Institute of Marine Science (SIMS): SIMS is home

Last updated 7/20/2017 8:38:44 AM to the World Harbour Project, which facilitates research projects across major urban harbors around the world. There are two U.S. partners, Chesapeake Bay and New York Harbor. The New York Harbor has a program linking high school students in the United States and Australia through a “Virtual Environmental Partnership” investigating the sustainability of each school’s local water cycle, sponsored by the State Department and the Australian Department of Education.

TBD Innovative and Responsible Development of Shale Gas Resources Roundtable

Location: TBD

Notes:

- Dialogue that the Administrator would hold with the private sector on hydro-fracking, potentially with the AmCham and member energy companies
- No media
- Suggested participants:
 - AmCham Energy and Resources Committee and member energy companies

TBD Bilateral Meeting with Federal Courts Judge The Hon John Griffiths

Location: TBD

Notes:

- To discuss judicial environmental regulatory issues
- The Hon John Griffiths: Justice Griffiths’ tertiary qualifications include a BA and LLB (First Class Hons and University Medal) from the Australian National University, an LLM from Harvard University and a PhD from Cambridge University. Prior to returning to Australia in 1983 he was a Fellow and Director of Studies in Law at Emmanuel College, Cambridge University and lectured in law at that University. After working for 3 years as the Director of Research of the Federal Administrative Review Council, he joined Dawson Waldron in 1986, where he became a partner. In 1994 he was admitted to the Bar of New South Wales. He was appointed Senior Counsel in 2001. Immediately prior to his appointment Justice Griffiths was also a member of the Judicial Commission of New South Wales and Chairman of the Human Rights Committee of the New South Wales Bar Association.

RON Sofitel Sydney

Tuesday, September 5, 2017

09:55 AM Depart Sydney ERT Canberra

10:50 AM Arrive Canberra

11:30-12:00 PM Courtesy Call with Chargé d’Affaires a.i. James Carouso

Location: TBD

Notes:

- One-on-one format

Last updated 7/20/2017 8:38:44 AM