Re: Ancel Wheeler

My dear Dr. Whitman:

In reply to your letter of May 25 regarding examination of this man the following arrangements have been made.

Mr. Wheeler is to come to Cincinnati on June 19, 1951 and report to the Good Samaritan Hospital. We have made arrangements with the hospital so that Mr. Wheeler can take the train that gets into Cincinnati in the evening of the 19th and he can go directly from the depot to the hospital. They are expecting him to arrive in the evening. On Wednesday, June 20th Mr. Dale Osborne and Dr. D. Nausinkveld will examine him. When they conclude their examinations he will be released from the hospital. I doubt if he will have to stay more than two days but he should be prepared to stay longer if the doctors deem it necessary.

If these arrangements are not satisfactory will you please advise at once so that they can be cancelled and others made.

Very truly yours,

Ralph G. Carothers, M.D.
