Subject: Agriculture submission to EPA

Samantha –

On Monday, a large number of agricultural organizations will make a joint submission to the EPA docket EPA-HQ- OA-2017-0190. American Farm Bureau is coordinating this effort. I've included below a list of the groups currently signing onto the submission.

Once the submission is final, I would like to send you a copy. Additionally, I know we would appreciate the chance to meet with you to underscore the importance of these issues to agriculture generally. We'd be happy to work around your schedule if that is something that would be worthwhile for you.

Thanks very much, and let me know if I can answer any questions.
