MATT: Lorraine would have final approval on any article. I am not aware of previous articles of this type. RAY

Ray -

The Oversight Committee for this research study is discussing this article. Comments back so far:

- Only if we, the consortium, have final and absolute control over what goes into the article. We review the draft and have editorial control over the content and wording. Otherwise, I feel that we should not agree to this.

and

- Could you provide us with examples of previous articles from this publication that describe non-API consortium research projects?

If we can't meet these requests, I will inform the committee. Thanks Ray.

Matt
