Justin –

Good to meet you at the ACUS Plenary on Friday. As we discussed, I'd like to get together with you some time to chat about regulatory policy. We obviously follow it closely at GE and I was quite involved from the OIRA end in past Administrations. We are close to each other – want to look for a time for a breakfast or quick drink at the end of the day over the next several weeks? If so, our assistants can find a time.

Best,

Michael.
