

Increase the Salability of your Home —

THERE'S no doubt about it, paint will help sell or rent any house. There's something attractive about fresh paint, just as there is about a new suit of clothes or a brand new car. The increased selling price, also, yields a profit on the painting job.

Most householders keep their homes painted because they take pride in their appearance, and a well-painted house will always sell more readily. Fuller's Products—Pioneer White Lead, Concrete, Fuller's Pure Prepared Paint and Phoenix Pure Paint, Silk-white Enamel, Fuller's Rubber Cement Floor Paint, Porch and Step Paint, "Fullerwear" and "15" for Floors" Varnish, etc.—have proved their worth.

Whatever your painting need, W. P. Fuller & Co. makes a paint for the purpose. Fuller Products are of consistently high quality. They are unequalled for ornamental and protective value. The Fuller reputation—74 years old—is your guarantee. Write, today, to our Service Department. Ask also for our "Home Service" booklet—it is free. For large painting jobs, a master painter should be employed.

Commander and founder of the great club movement for health centers, girls' clubs and junior groups, will arrive at Hotel Alexandria, the evening of the 11th inst. to take charge of the Association's supreme headquarters until the close of the great session, in which a nation-wide movement will be inaugurated for the universal extension of welfare work, to embrace every nation to raise the standards of efficiency of women in home.

The season's more than 1600 bright and colorful dancing colors will begin at 1 p. m. on the 20th inst. at Occidental Hotel on the college grounds at Eagle Rock. Junior groups will give "The Reel of the Day," a unique pageant story indicated by the title. Experts predict these events to be among the most engrossing of all spectacles yet presented in Los Angeles.

Just Going to Meet Relatives From 'Indianny'

She was a regular Ma Pettigrew, broad of mind and body, and she was on a street car headed for the Southern Pacific station to meet some relatives. This was made clear by her conversation addressed to a patient-looking man beside her.

"Yes, I'm going down to meet 'em," she said. "They come from a little town in Indianny—one of them little towns where if they got five people on the street, they think they got traffic."

"When I come West," she went on, her black eyes showing a humorous gleam, "they asked me to send 'em a stamp from Texas—seemed to think it was Brazil or something."

"Do you know, they think we ain't even got newspapers out here, yet, girl! They wrote me when President Wilson got married again—said they hoped I hadn't heard about it. I wrote 'em back, much obliged. We didn't hear much. Once in a while a cowboy rode through our district and dropped off a couple letters."

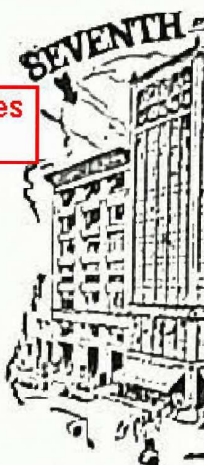

"Well, good-by," she cried as the car stopped. "I'm gold to meet 'em—all five of 'em—and head off the gold-brick men. But say, they're that lucky if somebody did sell 'em a gold brick, it'd turn out to be real."

And she chuckled as she swung into the big double doors.
